FORTY-SECOND DAY

The Senate met at 11:00 a.m., pursuant to adjournment and was called to order by the President.

Heavenly Father, we ask Your blessings this morning as we stand before You, this week of resurrection. We pray that these individuals, whom You have chosen to serve, will be Your servants.

We pray that You give them wisdom. We pray that wisdom be so definite that it allows them the courage and the integrity to be prophetic, not only for us, but for the generations that will follow us. We know that the affairs of man are so directed by God as to give You glory and honor.

Lord, in each of their lives, because of their pressures, because of the things that they encounter, because we live in a critical time, in a critical day, we ask not that they just walk as men, but that they walk as instruments of Your righteousness, that they walk as instruments of Your peace.

Lord, give them a clear heart of peace, a clear indicative answer to Your direction and bless them, Father, bless them because they have chosen to give of their time that they may serve not only us but You, and we thank You for Your truth amongst men and we praise You, Jesus. Amen.

On motion of Senator Brooks and by unanimous consent, the reading of the Journal of the proceedings of Thursday, April 9, 1987, was dispensed with and the Journal was approved.
